COMING THIS WEEK & SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

We were having technical issues these past couple of weeks, but they have since been resolved, and we are back up and running bringing you quality streaming!

Celebration of All Saints Day is Sunday, November 3. We will be remembering people who have passed, with a brunch to follow.

How is Dia De Los Muertos celebrated?
By Eddie Hernandez and Familia

Dia De Los Muertos (Day of the Dead), is widely celebrated in Mexico over multiple days, coinciding with All Saint's Day and Halloween. My family never celebrated it until the movie Coco was released in 2017, after which our daughter Aria questioned why we didn't celebrate it?

The centerpiece of the celebration is the ofrenda (altar), which is used to place photos of those we've lost. In addition to photos, sometimes we place food and beverages, and trinkets and symbols of things that remind us of those souls, and/or things they enjoyed doing. From our family, you'll notice fishing lures and dice, as my father's parents enjoyed trips to Las Vegas and Reno, whereas my mom's parents enjoyed fishing.

The ofrenda is intended to be colorful and celebratory, hence the serape (brightly colored Mexican blanket), and is traditionally lit with candles and decorated with marigolds (sometimes called Flor de Muerto, or Flower of the Dead), along with calaveras (skulls).

For us, it is intended to affirm the connection we've had with those we've lost, so that they are not forgotten. The photos and symbols provide a spark to those memories; "Hey, remember the time that Grandma told a long winded joke, but completely forgot the punchline?" I don't remember the joke, but I remember all of us crying, bent over with laughter, especially Grandpa. You had to be there, and we were.

We are honored to share this tradition with Trinity, and invite anyone to participate by bringing photos, trinkets etc to place on the ofrenda.

Love, Eddie Hernandez and Familia

Cyndi Hernandez will be organizing an ofrenda this year. Photos will be collected and the ofrenda will be set up from Sunday, October 27 to Sunday, November 10.

In-Gathering, Nov. 3, where everyone will turn in their pledges of what they are going to pledge during the year. Coffee hour will be All Parish, so bring a dish to share. There will be a sign up sheet.

Wednesday Night Eucharist Service, 5:45pm. Holy Eucharist will be celebrated. This will also be an invitation to folks who might not be able to make it to church on Sundays.

Our national election day approaches with great publicity, rhetoric and pressure on us as citizens, family members and neighbors. In John 14, Jesus tells the disciples; Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you. The Trinity sanctuary will be open for your prayers for peace, contemplation, and quiet centering, from 10:00am to 7:00pm on November 5-7.

A few more people are needed to join our Eucharistic Minister (EM) team. This is a wonderful and necessary ministry and great opportunity to serve our church family. Training will be provided as a group when it is scheduled. Please see Reverend Chip if you are interested, or you can speak to anyone currently serving.

Blessings for Birthdays and Anniversaries. Rev. Chip will ask for those celebrating birthdays or an anniversary to come forward for a blessing the first Sunday of the month. If the church office doesn't have your birthday or anniversary, please let the church office know.

A Community Prayer Box has been set up by the church parking lot for the public. It contains prayer request forms & pencils. The Community Prayer Box will be checked before each Sunday service for any prayer requests.

Prayers will be read during the Sunday service on the 3rd Sunday of each month. The Community Prayer box contains other items too that the public can take and keep such as meditation booklets, holy water, coloring books, and bottled water.

Diocesan Children and Youth Resource Hub. We are so excited to share our new resource hub for children and youth ministries. Holly McNeal will be joining the office of the Missioner for Ministry with Young People as the Regional Youth Partner. This resource will be ever evolving and updated as we move throughout the year. You will find administrative resources, games and activities, and books and prayers for holidays and feast days! If you have something to add, please send it to Carmen Piggins at cpiggins@edomi.org. Be sure to check out resources for Pet Blessings, Stewardship, and more!
